Rules and Conditions for Safe Deposit Lockers

- 1 Lockers will be rented for a period of one year in the first instance and will be automatically renewed thereafter from year to year until terminated pursuant to provisions of the Rules as hereinafter set out.
- 2 The Renter shall have access to the Locker at any time during the Bank's business hours, notified in the Branch premises and in accordance with such regulations as shall from time to time, be laid down by the Bank.
- 3 All rentals are payable in advance.
- 4 The Renter may at his own risk appoint another person to have access to his locker by completing the requisite authority form available on application at the Bank. The Renter should complete a fresh form on every occasion that such access is required and this form should be surrendered to the Bank at the time of access.

Letters, telegrams, telephonic messages purposing to authorise a third party access to the locker will not be accepted and in the case of joint renters, such form of authority must be signed by all. The Bank disclaims all responsibility for any loss arising either by reason of (1) such a form of authority having been accepted which bears only one genuine signature of a joint renter, the other necessary signatures, having been placed thereon fraudulently or (2) a form of authority being misused or stolen.
- 5 The Renters shall not assign or sub-let the locker, or any part of it, nor permit it to be used for the deposit of any liquid or any thing of explosive, dangerous or offensive nature or which become a nuisance to the Bank or to any of its constituents. The Bank reserves the right of inspection of the contents of lockers.
- 6 In order to terminate the rental notice (which may be given by either the Bank or the Renter) must be given at least one week prior to the expiry date of the rental and the locker with its key must surrender to the Bank before noon on the expiry date of the rental. If the locker and key are not surrendered on the expiry date, the rental will be considered renewed for a further year and rent charged accordingly and the Renter hereby agrees to pay such rent on demand. This clause only applies when the Renter to the satisfaction of the Bank has properly observed all the conditions contained in this hiring agreement.
- 7 In the event of non-payment of rent when due, or non-observance of any of the conditions herein set out by the Renter, the Renter shall forfeit all right to the use of the locker. On such an event, the Bank shall give notice in writing to the Renter demanding payment of all rent due and the performance by the Renter or any conditions herein contained and if before the expiry of one month from the date of notice, the Renter does not pay the rent or fails to comply with such conditions, the Bank shall be entitled to break open the lock and either to forward (by registered post or other reasonable means at the Renter's risk) the contents of the locker to the Renter at his/her/their registered address or at the Bank's option to retain and keep the contents of the locker on such other place as it may think fit at an annual rent equal to the amount of the rent payable hereunder.
- 8 The Bank must be notified without delay in case of loss of locker key. In such an event, any expense to which the Bank may be put in breaking open the locker and substituting a fresh lock shall be charged to the Renter.
- 9 All the repairs required for the locker, lock or key are to be carried out exclusively by workmen nominated by the Bank.
- 10 The Bank shall have a lien on the contents of the Locker for all rent due from the Renter to the Bank and also for all expenses to which the Bank may be put in breaking open the locker and substituting a fresh lock and key and the Bank shall be entitled to sell the contents of the locker or any part thereof for the purpose of recovering unpaid rent or any such expenses.
- 11 Any notice sent to the Renter by registered post to his last address known to the Bank shall be deemed to have been duly served on the renter in the usual course of post.
- 12 In the event of death of a sole renter of locker or of the last surviving joint Renter of a locker, the Bank may at its option (and on evidence which it may deem necessary being produced) permit the legal representative of the deceased sole renter or the last surviving joint renters as the case may be, to inspect the contents of such locker and on the production of relationship certificate probates or letter of Administration, the Executor or Administrator named therein shall have to deal with the contents of the locker and shall be deemed to be the Renter of such locker in the place of the original renter.
- 13 The Bank shall not be liable for any loss of or damage to the contents of any locker unless the same shall have been occasioned or if it arises from any willful act, gross neglect or default of the Bank or of its servants or agents.
- 14 The relation between the Bank and the Renter is that of Lessor and Lessee and not that of a banker and customer.
- 15 Without prejudice and in addition to the provisions of condition No. 9 above, the Bank shall have authority to debit any account of the Renter maintained with the Bank to recover any rent or expenses relating to the locker as mentioned in this agreement without giving any notice to the Renter.
- 16 In case of grave or urgent necessity or in the event of the failure of the mechanism of the Safe deposit Vault or any other reasons that make the opening of the Safe Deposit unsafe or inexpedient, the Bank reserves the right to close without notice the safe deposit for such period as it may consider necessary.
- 17 Renters are warned to keep the keys of the locker in a place of safety, not to divulge the numbers of their keys and the password (if any) and not to deliver the keys to any person other than duly authorised agent.
- 18 The Bank reserves the right to add to and/or amend the rules and to alter the rental at its absolute discretion without prior notice. The Renter shall abide by such rules and regulations as the bank may from time to time adopt.
- 19 The Bank reserves the right to remove the locker and its contents to a new location under such safeguards, as the Bank deems proper.
